

Job success begins with Manpower.

Providing you job placements, guidance and educational resources to find the job you want.

Apply at Manpower and receive:

Access to job opportunities in a range of areas: office/administrative, industrial, manufacturing, finance, contact center, hospitality and more.

Assessments to better understand your interests, skill strengths, and growth areas.

A dedicated recruiter/coach focused on finding you the job you want based on schedule, interests, skills, and life necessities.

Education and training, including connections to work in cutting-edge industries, where you receive on-the-job training and mentorship, and access to thousands of free courses via our online education portal.

Guidance & Support to help you land the job you want, succeed on the job and prepare for the next job.

Get started at manpower.ca